

2017 North Winnipeg Credit Union Scholarship Recipients

Grace Capar
Mennonite Brethren Collegiate Institute (MBCI)

Grace Capar has excelled in music, volunteer work and athletic activities while maintaining a 90% plus average in her academic studies. She actively participated in many school events, such as Senior Jazz Band, Varsity Soccer team, school open houses and fundraising dinners. While in school, Grace volunteered with Youth in Philanthropy—Winnipeg Foundation, Manitoba Music Conference and many other events.

Grace is very proud of her Ukrainian heritage and is greatly engaged in the Ukrainian community. She volunteered at Folklorama Ukraine-Kyiv Pavilion for 13 years and was selected as the 2017 Youth Ambassador. Grace also volunteered at the Ukrainian National People's Home of Taras Shevchenko (the Fraserwood Hall). She is also a dancer with the Rozmai Ukrainian Senior Dance Company.

Grace will be studying Mechanical Engineering at the Faculty of Engineering at the University of Manitoba. Her ultimate goal is to specialize in Aerospace and Biomedical Engineering.

Adrianna Krawczuk
Collège Garden City Collegiate (CGCC)

Adrianna Krawczuk is a gifted student with a high academic standing who was involved in many school activities and played on the school Rugby and Softball teams. Adrianna volunteered at WeDay, The Santa Claus Parade and Siloam Mission.

From early childhood Adrianna has been engaged in the Ukrainian community. Adrianna graduated from Ridna Shkola in grade ten, danced with Orlan Ukrainian Dance ensemble and is a member of PLAST. She continues to volunteer at PLAST as a counsellor with younger groups on weekends and in the summer. Adrianna volunteered at Folklorama Ukraine-Kyiv Pavilion working with the social media Chair. In 2016, she was selected as Youth Ambassador.

Adrianna will pursue a career in teaching and will attend the Faculty of Education at the University of Winnipeg.

We are very proud to support these outstanding young individuals in their career and community aspirations, and wish them great future successes!
